Dear Taylor:

I recently learned of your efforts to help better the lives of young cancer patients through TayBear Co., your nonprofit organization. I commend your services and true compassion for others.

Founding your non-profit organization is a testament to your service to the community. Your family and friends must be extremely proud of you. Your dedication and good work have touched the lives of many.

Thank you again for offering your time and service to your community. I encourage you to continue your valuable work in the community.

Sincerely,

Barbara Boxer
United States Senator
